

ANDERSON

Tom C. Maynor Rehabilitation Center

Common Conditions for Admission to the Tom C. Maynor Rehabilitation Center

Your patients may be good candidates for admission if they have had a decrease in their ability to function in their normal environment, and may have experienced any of the conditions listed below. The Tom C. Maynor Rehabilitation Center is an acute rehabilitation unit that can help your high-risk patients avoid hospital readmissions. We offer on-site acute rehab assessments.

Neurological

- Stroke
- Multiple Sclerosis
- Parkinsonism
- Guillain-Barré Syndrome
- Neuromuscular Disorders (Motor Neuron Disease, Myopathies)
- Myasthenia Gravis

Cardiac

- Acute Myocardial Infarction
- Ischemic Heart Disease

Pulmonary

- Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease
- Bronchiectasis

Orthopedic

- Amputation
- Hip Fracture
- Femur Fracture (shaft)
- Pelvic Fracture
- Hip Replacement (Unilateral, Bilateral)
- Knee Replacement (Unilateral, Bilateral)
- Major Multiple Fractures

Major Multiple Trauma

- Multiple Fractures/Amputation

Referral Lines

601.480.9961 • 601.480.9093

1102 Constitution Avenue • Meridian, MS 39301

www.andersonregional.org