

OUTPATIENT REHABILITATION

Hand Therapy

ANDERSON

Regional Medical Center

Anderson Regional Medical Center offers outpatient Rehabilitation therapy by highly trained physical and occupational therapists for patients who have suffered injuries in accidents, burns and more. Hand therapy treats these common conditions:

- Tendon injuries
- Burns
- Amputation
- Crush injuries
- Carpal Tunnel Syndrome
- Upper extremity fractures
- Nerve Compression Syndrome

Services include: custom splint fabrication, sensory evaluation, manual therapy, edema management, fall prevention/safety training, pain management and scar management.

Anderson — for quality of life.

www.andersonregional.org

A physician referral is required.

Call 601.553.6704 for more details.

Most insurances accepted.

